

Marco Beach Ocean Resort Completes Resort Renovation Project

MARCO ISLAND, FL—February 1, 2010—Marco Beach Ocean Resort is pleased to announce the completion of the Resort's renovation project of the guest suites, corridors, fitness center and lobby. Designed by Marc-Michaels Interior Design, Inc. and carried out by Robb & Stucky's Resort Division, each of the 98 suites have received a full makeover.

"The Resort renovation project was executed seamlessly with little or no disruption for our valued guests," stated Hotel Advisor Ron Albeit, "and we are thrilled with the end result."

The full suite make-over included fresh paint, new carpet, draperies and lamps, along with new suite and patio furniture, i-pod docking station, flat-screen LCD televisions and wireless internet technology. New state-of-the-art exercise equipment has been installed in the Resort's Fitness Center including TRUE® elliptical machines, recumbent bicycles and treadmills each with their own individual equipment-mounted 15-inch television.

A freshly-painted lobby and updated corridors complete with carpet, furniture in cream, blue and gold tones round out the Resort's refreshed, refined and sophisticated elegance. New beach chaise lounge chairs, umbrellas and cocktail tables complete the renovations at the resort.
